 - a. Resolution 20-2: May Special Election: Hallman informed the Commission that the School District has decided to withdraw from the May election.
Dietz asked if things settle down if the School District would go in August.
Jernberg stated they will reconsider it in August.
Sanchez thinks it might be better to wait so we can get new ballots.
Jernberg worries if we wait a year we pay more interest on the sewer bonds. The balance on the bonds is $124,000 and the interest rate is 5%.
Williams thinks we could try.
Sanchez stated it's worth a shot. He did receive e-mails from the School District stating the school has withdrawn.
Jernberg his preference would be to proceed with May. Our rollback is nearly eighteen percent.
Motion made by Williams, second by Sanchez to go forward with May.
Motion carried unanimously
